

SAXA LOQVNTVR
INSCRIBED MONUMENTS FROM FRIULI
Epigraphic Summerschool

The Friulian Archaeological Society, the Department of Humanities and Cultural Heritage of the University of Udine, the Institute of Ancient History and Antiquities of the Karl-Franzens University of Graz, the Department of Culture and Civilisation of the University of Verona, and the Department of History and its teaching methods of the European University of Flensburg are organising the fifth Epigraphic summerschool, in Aquileia, from the 19th to the 24th of August 2019 for people who are passionate about the ancient world.

Aquileia, 19th - 24th of August 2019

The programme of the course aims to provide a general introduction to Latin epigraphy and consists of theoretical and practical sections. This year the course will be specifically dedicated to the topic "Army and Society in the Epigraphic Documentation". Practical activities include visits to the Museums, the Lapidarii and the epigraphic collections of Aquileia, Grado, Aguntum, Lavant, Portogruaro, Concordia and Buttrio, where epigraphic documents will be individually examined and discussed. Participants will also have the possibility to illustrate the features of some monuments and in this way, to acquire familiarity with the epigraphic evidence, which constitute a precious source for the reconstruction of many aspects of Roman society.

The implementation of the programme will be held by some teachers who are experts in the discipline, as part of the aforementioned institutions. The course is open to everyone, however, because of the topic, it is assumed that each participant possesses a basic knowledge of Latin.

Since the course is directed to anyone with an interest and passion for antiquity, there are no age limits to access to it and no specific qualifications are required. Lessons and activities will be held in German, English and Italian, with the possibility of immediate translations and discussions.
